

WOMEN ANARCHISTS FIGHT OFF POLICEFierce Battle on When New York Meeting is Raided.

CALLS ASSASSIN MARTYR

Speaker Then Placed Under Arrest and Riot Begins.

Emma Goldman Among Those Who Are Locked Up—Women, Who Comprised Half the Audience, Scrambled and Tied at Policemen, Shouting, "Kill the Oppressors" and "Down with the Police"—Other Arrests.

New York, Oct. 30.—A meeting of anarchists was raided and broken up by a large force of police about 10 o'clock to-night at the Manhattan Lyceum, 65 East Fourth street. The wildest kind of a riot followed when the police stormed the hall. Women screamed "Down with the police!" "Kill the oppressors!" and a few other such things.

When the men quailed, the women themselves led a charge on the police that was not while it lasted. Many of the officers were badly scratched and punched.

Ten of the anarchists were arrested, among them Emma Goldman, who tackled a policeman and was making good until other officers rescued their battered fellow-raider.

The meeting was a continuation of the one that the police broke up on Forsyth street a week ago. This meeting, like that one, was called to discuss Cozlogos and praise him as a martyr. Julius Ed-elson had hired the hall, called the meeting, and was the principal speaker.

Policemen Enter Hall.

Just as he took the platform, central office men, under the lead of Detective Sergeant Braun, slipped into the hall and took up places at various points.
Houndsmen Beck and several plainclothes men from the Eldridge street station were near the door, and Capt. Shaw with twenty-five men in uniform marched up in front of the building to await developments.

Edelson began in this way, according to Sergt. Braun:

"I have many things to say, but first of all I wish to explain anarchy. Now, there are two kinds of anarchists. One class desires peace, while the others are felons. But all anarchists do not want the kind of peace that is prescribed by law. The time will come when we will throw away the ballot boxes and take things in our own hands."

Calls Cozlogos a Martyr.

According to Sergt. Braun, Edelson went on to speak of Cozlogos. He spoke at considerable length, and pictured the player of President McKinley as a martyr and man that had been wronged.

Sergt. Braun then declared that the new law enacted to cover criminal anarchy had been violated, and he called upon the officers to get busy. The central office men leaped to the platform and grabbed Edelson.

In an instant there was a great uproar.
The women made the most noise. One of them cried out to the men to kill the police, and a mob surged toward the central office men. Word had been passed to the hall in a jiffy.

The police had a difficult time in clearing the hall. The women—and they comprised nearly half of the audience—flew at the police, scratching and tearing at them, at the same time shouting that the police should be killed.

The greatest trouble was made by Lena Sweet, twenty years old, a Russian. She pitched into every cop that came near her. Finally she centered her attack on Policeman Morris Schwartz, and he was a sorry looking sight when other police dragged the frantic woman away, and to the street.

Emma Goldman is Arrested.

Emma Goldman was arrested by an officer who recognized her. She made quite a struggle, but was hustled down the stairs and to the station. Edelson was hurried out of the hall, as was Lena Sweet. Then the uniformed police, under Capt. Shaw, struggled and yanked the mob about until they had forced all hands down to the street.

During all this there were repeated attempts to fight back and eight of these offenders were corralled and taken to the station in a patrol wagon. Of the eight, four were women, mostly young. One of these arrested girls was named Annie Pastor, of 50 St. Mark's place. Some one started a story that she was related to Mrs. J. G. Phelps Stokes, but this was denied.

When taken to the station house Emma Goldman described herself as a publisher.
She said she was thirty-eight years old, and single. Edelson is the cause of all the trouble, according to the police. He was arrested for being concerned in the affair of last week, and was out on $1,000 bail.

It was learned that Emma Goldman was slated to make a speech following that of Edelson.

IN TERROR OF INDIANS.

Wagon Loads of Women and Children Are Seeking Safety.

Sheridan, Wyo., Oct. 30.—Telephone message received this afternoon from the neighborhood of the Ute Indian camp, sixty miles north of here, says the wildest excitement prevails in that vicinity on account of the departure of the Indians.

Wagon loads of women and children are being driven to places of safety. The Spear ranch has been converted into a fort, and well-stocked with guns and ammunition. The ranch blacksmith shop, a log building, is heavily embanked, and loopholes have been bored in the walls.

Yesterday "Doc" Spear and E. W. Cowling, the Sheridan cowboy artist, came upon a band of about thirty Indians on Bowers Creek, a tributary of Powder River. The Indians were skinning six head of cattle they had killed. As soon as the men were seen, the Indians fled a valley, killing Spear's horse. The two men, however, escaped to the ranch on Collins' horse.

Capt. Cowles Returns.

New York, Oct. 30.—Capt. W. C. Cowles, U. S. N., accompanied by his wife and two children, arrived here to-day in the S. S. Ryndam. Capt. Cowles has been on duty in the far East, and though ordered home, has not been assigned for duty.

Every safeguard for the protection of deposits is provided by banking dept. of Union Trust Co., 1414 F. Interest on all accounts. Deposits subject to check at will.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia, fair and somewhat colder to-day. Tomorrow fair; fresh northeasterly winds.
